SPARKLING VIVONE

THIS fascinating beverage has, since its introduction eighteen months ago, proved a blessing to myriads of consumers. Fever patients say that the inventor must have been one of themselves to have been able to gauge their yearnings so accurately, and that, but for Vivone, they could never have pulled through. Intelligent critics reflect with surprise that they once scoffed at a "wine without alcohol," and now cheerfully endorse the inventor's prospectus. The superiority of Vivone as a beverage is admitted on all hands.

To be had at every respectable Refreshment Buffet.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE

SATURDAY EVENING, OCT. 7.

THE rate of discount in the open market in London is quoted ½ per cent. lower, but although produce seems to be improving stocks are no better. On the contrary, Consols come ¼ lower at 100½, and Rupee Paper has declined ¼, making Fours 82½, Fours and-a-half 88¼. Exchange banks are unaltered, and the Oriental we notice has declared a dividend of 2 per cent. for the half-year ending 30th June.

In produce, Coffee and Cocoanut-Oil remain as before; Linseed is firmer and partially 6d. dearer; Rapeseed unchanged; Wheat in more demand, and 3d. per quarter higher in London, although apparently without change in Liverpool.

The tone of the Liverpool Cotton market yesterday was said to be unchanged, but details of the report all point to a better feeling. The sales were liberal, being estimated at 12,000 bales, of which 2,000 were Surats, and in Americans, both on the spot and to arrive, an advance of 1-16d. is quoted. In New York also ready Mid-Uplands is quoted ¼ higher, March shipment one point up. The receipts at the U. S. ports are rapidly increasing, and are now day by day recovering their lost ground as compared with last year. Owing to this the total visible supply has increased during the week by 120,000 bales. The Cotton, however, will take some time to find its way to Europe, and we have still an interval of some weeks before us, during which ready supplies of good working American must be down to a very low level. In Liverpool the stock is again reduced by 22,000 bales, and it is evident that, however, prices are to be depressed by larger crops later on, we must see a certain amount of firmness in the immediate future.

The American crop figures to date give the following comparisons with the two previous seasons :—

	1882.	1881.	1880.
Week's receipts	178,000	170,000	188,000
" Exports to U. K.	67,000	67,000	107,000
" " to Continent	16,000	18,000	27,000
Total receipts since 1st Sept.	471,000	591,000	690,100
" Exports to U.K. "	159,000	233,700	292,600
" " to Cont. "	48,000	53,100	88,700
" Stock in the ports	289,000	446,000	309,000

The total visible supply of Cotton for all Europe on the 6th inst. affords the following comparisons with the two previous years :—

	1882.	1881.	1880.
Total supply of all kinds	1,120,000	1,705,810	1,121,990
Do. do. Surats	595,000	372,930	310,390

For the U. K. only the figures are :—

Stock in Liverpool	459,000	612,320	438,620
" London	73,000	44,300	48,87
American Afloat	80,000	180,000	105,000

EXCHANGE.—As was to be anticipated the announcement of the new sterling loan has imparted a much firmer tone to the market for sterling, and rates are 3-32d. higher all round. At this, however, we seem to have reached the level for the time being, and we question whether any further rise will take place in the meantime or until at all events, the result of Wednesday's biddings for council drafts is known. In lowering their limit before announcing the loan, Government have been guilty of a cardinal error of policy, as public confidence has received a shock in the strength of the Government position which will not be easily restored. Had the loan been announced and no reduction made in the limit for councils, it would, on the other hand, have materially strengthened the market, and probably more would have been taken up at 1s. 8d. than will now find buyers at 1s. 7⅞d. per rupee.

The fair business has been done to-day for Saturday, mainly forward at an advance of 1-32d. per month. Ready quotations are :—

Bank Bills on demand	...1s. 7 13-16d.	per Rupee.
Do. Telegraphic	...1s. 7¾d.	"
Do. 3 months' sight	1s. 8 1-16d.	"
Credits, 3 "	" ...1s. 8 7-32d.	"
Francs, 3 "	" ...2 13/4	"

On Calcutta we still quote ¼ premium for demand, 7-16 for 60 days' sight drafts.

GOVERNMENT PAPER has been just a shade steadier, and Fours have recovered to Rs. 99½, though Fours-and-a-half are still Rs. 106½. Only limited business has been done.

Bank stock and in most cases where any sale is effected rule the turn dearer. Port Cannings and Press shares are Rs. 25 Trading Co's shares Rs. 10 for new. panies are very have been

SEEDS.—Linseed is firmer and partially 6d. dearer, to Rs. 5-10 for [illegible] figure for March delivery. Rapeseed unchanged, supply, and Rs 6-13 has [illegible]

WHEAT is now coming in a little more freely, and a fair business is passing at Rs. 3[illegible] for No. 1 White.

FREIGHTS are unchanged at 20s. for Wheat, and 6d. for Measurement for Liverpool. Rates by the Austrian Lloyds are reported to have been made at 25s., payable here. At 25s. Charterers seem disinclined to work forward, the fear of the disengaged transports hanging over the market. Tonnage, however, is being got rid of very rapidly one way and another.

PIECE-GOODS are very steady with a fair average business doing. The shipments from the U. K. during September are not quite so heavy as was anticipated, which will probably not be without a good effect.

COALS are firm at previous prices.

The Bombay Gazette

MONDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1882.

THE severe lecture which the Government of India has just administered to the Government of Bombay cannot be said to be unprovoked. The tone of the Resolution of the local Government was so adverse to the scheme propounded by the Supreme Government that it was impossible for the latter to remain silent. Still it is to be wished that the controversy could have been carried on without verging upon the amenities of party debating. The Government of Bombay set the example of hitting out at a power which it should certainly not affect to regard as an antagonistic one, and now the Government of India hits back in a manner which is effective enough, but is scarcely consonant with the due care for the maintenance of the dignity and authority of the Government which, however subordinate, is charged with the administration of the affairs of sixteen millions of people. While noting this tendency to join issue and take sides, we have no desire to dwell upon it, or to ignore the circumstances from which it has arisen. The Legislative Councils in India give no scope for the discussion of such questions as that now in controversy, and if great political changes are to be fully discussed by those responsible for them, it is almost inevitable that they must be fought out in Resolutions and other State papers, instead of in speeches. This said, we can have no hesitation in expressing a general concurrence in the latest utterance of the Government of India on the Local Self-government question. We have, indeed, ourselves anticipated most of the criticism unsparingly applied to the Resolution of the Government of Bombay. We drew attention to that which is the very first point now referred to by the Supreme Government—the fact that the opinions upon which the local Government founded its action were entirely official opinions. The two collections of papers, of which we have more than once spoken, and for the publication of which we vainly asked, have been forwarded to Simla, and the Supreme Government observes that they are composed of the reports of Commissioners, Collectors, and other Government officials; while with the exception of letters from the Sarvajanik Sabha, there is no record of native or non-official opinion, and although the Supreme Government had specially asked for the views of the Local Fund Committees, none had been received or considered by the Bombay Government.

Having thus indicated the bias under which the Government of Bombay had drawn up its Resolution, the Supreme Government expresses itself with considerable warmth at the misapprehension of its views and intentions, which are manifest in the remarks contained in the second paragraph of that Resolution. It shows that it was fully explained that what was desired was to give practical effect to one of the principal objects of Lord Mayo's Government when inaugurating the system of financial decentralisation in 1870. It was then set forth that local interest, supervision, and care were necessary to success in the management of funds devoted to education, medical charity, and local public works. In its scheme for realising this object the Government of India left to the local Governments the widest latitude: "So far from proposing to make elected members in all cases representatives of the mass of ratepayers, as stated in the Bombay Resolution, the determination of qualifications for electing, and the modes of election, were left entirely to the local Government." It was not desired to force upon all parts of the country a uniform system, "but to secure a gradual training of the best, most intelligent, and most influential men in the community to take an interest and active part in the management of local affairs." The paragraph which follows this exposition of the real aim of the Government of India is a very telling thrust at Sir James Fergusson and his official advisers: "The Government of Bombay do not seem to attach much importance to the attainment of this object, but would prefer to create and educate public spirit. Their ability to do this is doubted, otherwise than by affording to the public a practical opportunity for displaying and cultivating such spirit in the management of some portion, however limited, of public affairs. It is far easier for the Executive Government, by its direct action, to check and hamper the development of public spirit than to create it." It is to be hoped that the Bombay Government will see in this latter remark the expression of a sober political truth, and not a wicked taunt. The Viceroy repudiates with energy the supposition of the Bombay Government that there was an intention to subvert altogether the existing system in Bombay, and conferring "unlimited" powers upon the Municipalities and Local Boards. It is shown that it was intended to leave to these bodies the management merely of what they already administer or are supposed to administer, but to emancipate them more or less from the official control which now completely hampers them. It is admitted that if the Bombay Government really imagined that it was proposed to confer unlimited powers on local bodies, hesitation and distrust would be natural, but it is caustically remarked that before imputing to the Government of India so improbable a design, the Bombay Government ought to have "taken steps to ascertain what the policy of Government really was." Then, almost in the very words which we ourselves used in our last article on this subject, His Excellency goes on to say:—"Of the perfect safety of the development of the principles laid down, when applied in the manner contemplated, the Viceroy has no doubt whatever; but he questions whether it is compatible with safety to continue to extend education, especially higher education, to which so much importance attaches both by Government and the public, without affording more extended means to those so educated of taking a share in the management of their own affairs." We are glad to see that this view of the matter is so firmly held by the highest administrative authority in India.

The Viceroy somewhat sarcastically declines to accept unreservedly the statement in paragraph 2 of the Bombay Resolution, that "the exist

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT.

THE SUPREME GOVERNMENT'S REPLY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

SIMLA, OCT. 7.

The Government of India, while acknowledging the receipt of the Resolution on local self-government from the Government of Bombay, have issued a reply. They remark that accompanying the document are copies of two printed collections of papers, being reports of Commissioners, Collectors, and other Government officials, bearing on the subject. It was particularly desired that the opinions of leading natives should also be invited upon the suggestions put forward by the Supreme Government, but with the exception of letters from the Poona Sarvajanik Sabha, no record of native or non-official opinion is found ; nor have the opinions of Local Fund Committees, specially called for, been received and considered by the local Government.

The Viceroy has perused with regret the remarks contained in paragraph 2 of the Bombay Resolution. He finds it difficult to understand how the Government of Bombay can have so seriously misapprehended the plain statement of views and intentions made by the Supreme Government in that Resolution, as also in the previous Resolution by the Financial Department. It was explained that the recent further extension of the principles of financial decentralisation made it at length both possible and desirable to give practical effect to one of the principal objects of Lord Mayo's Government when inaugurating the system in 1870, as described in paragraph 23 of their Resolution that year, in which it was stated that local interest, supervision, and care were necessary to success in the management of funds devoted to education, sanitation, [illegible] charity, and local public works.

In the Resolution of the Supreme Government, attempts to lay down rules for universal application were deprecated, a large latitude of application being left in every case to the local authorities ; and, so far from proposing to make elected members in all cases representatives of the mass of ratepayers, as stated in the Bombay Resolution, the determination of qualifications for electing, and the modes of election, were left entirely to local Governments. The desire of the Government of India is not, therefore, to force upon all parts of the country a uniform system of its own devising, but to secure a gradual training of the best, most intelligent, and most influential men in the community to take an interest and active part in the management of local affairs.

The Government of Bombay do not seem to attach much importance to the attainment of this object, but would prefer to create and educate public spirit. Their ability to do this is doubted, otherwise than by according to the public a practical opportunity for displaying and cultivating such spirit in the management of some portion, however limited, of public affairs. It is far easier for the Executive Government, by its direct action, to check and hamper the development of public spirit than to create it.

The Viceroy is at a loss to conceive what can have led the Bombay Government to suppose the Supreme Government had any intention either of subverting altogether the existing systems in Bombay, or conferring unlimited powers upon the Municipalities and Local Boards. The Government desire, not subversion, but adaptation and expansion of existing arrangements. Furthermore, the powers which it is proposed to entrust to the Local Boards, far from being unlimited, are, in fact, most strictly limited ; the local objects entrusted to their management are merely what they already administer, but it is proposed that they should be less subject to official direction.

Further, in raising loans, imposing new taxes, the alienation of property, and interference with matters involving religious questions or affecting public peace, the sanction of the authorities will, as heretofore, be necessary to give validity to the proceedings.

It is also explained in the Resolution, paragraphs 17 and 18, that it is the intention of Government that district officers should supervise from without the proceedings, while Government retained all the necessary powers of dealing with any board failing in its duty, the powers extending from simple remonstrance to absolute, though temporary, supersession.

The Viceroy is not surprised that if the Bombay Government really imagined it to be in contemplation to bestow unlimited powers on local bodies, hesitation and distrust should be felt ; but it is regretted that, before issuing a Resolution attributing to the Government of India an intention so improbable, the Bombay Government should not have taken steps to ascertain what the policy of Government really was. Of the perfect safety of the development of the principles laid down, when applied in the manner contemplated, the Viceroy has no doubt whatever ; but he questions whether it is compatible with safety to continue to extend education, especially higher education, to which so much importance attaches both by Government and the public, without affording more extended means to those so educated of taking a share in the management of their own affairs.

Further, the Viceroy is not prepared to accept unreservedly the further suggestion underlying the argument in paragraph 2, that the existing system in the Bombay Presidency is, either in itself or in the mode of its administration, so perfect as to make any change undesirable. With reference to the debates in connection with the passing of the Bombay Municipal Act of 1873, they show that the measure is regarded by intelligent natives as limiting unduly the powers of Municipal Commissioners. This state of things with regard to a number of City Municipalities throughout the presidency cannot, in the opinion of the Government, be regarded with complacency in a presidency which, on account of its enlightenment and advancement, would seem to be capable of exercising with safety more extended powers of self-government than could be wisely conceded to many other parts of the country. Further, it is admitted by some officials that the system of control hitherto in force is too strict and elaborate to encourage independent action, and that as popular institutions Municipalities and Local Fund Committees in Sind are, with some exceptions, little better than shams.

It is essential to the success of the policy that fairer opportunities of developing the capacity for local self-government should be given, and the Government possesses ample evidence from all parts of the country that only by removing the pressure of direct official interference can this result be attained.

The Viceroy, therefore, is unable to regard the proposal that the Collector should continue as a rule to be the president of City and Town Municipalities and Local Fund Committees, as anything but a temporary arrangement. His Excellency hopes that the experiments which the Bombay Government declares itself willing to make of appointing non-official presidents in more advanced towns and collectorates, will be tried in an ungrudging spirit ; and if the plan of outside control is only properly understood and fairly worked, its advantages will very soon be appreciated.

The Viceroy accepts the statement that there are certain tracts in the presidency where it is not possible to introduce this policy at present in the more advanced forms. It is left to the Governor to determine in what places the new system can be introduced with fair prospects of success, but the Viceroy trusts that a narrow policy will not be followed.

PROTEST AGAINST THE SALVATION ARMY PROSECUTION.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, OCT. 8.

The meeting at the Town Hall yesterday evening, presided over by Keshub Chunder Sen, was attended by over four thousand Hindus, a few missionaries, and about fifty ladies ; but no leading Europeans or natives were present. Everything was conducted in the very orderly fashion. The speeches, however, were very violent against the action of the Bombay police. The following resolutions were carried unanimously :—

"That this meeting views with regret and alarm the recent action of the Bombay authorities in depriving certain members of the Salvation Army of those rights and privileges in exercise of their religion which are by law guaranteed to all classes of Her Majesty's subjects."

"That this meeting, without expressing any opinion as to the religious tenets of the Salvationists, or their modes of action, expresses its sympathy with them in the injury and insult to which they were subjected in the recent prosecutions ; and is of opinion that they had done nothing justly calculated to wound the religious feelings of their Hindu or Mahomedan or other fellow subjects, and that they were therefore entitled to protection from the Government, like all others, in discharge of what they regarded as their religious duty."

A memorial embodying the purport of the two resolutions adopted is in transmission to the Viceroy.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

CALCUTTA, OCT. 7.

One of the largest meetings ever convened in Calcutta was held in the Town Hall this evening to protest against the unjust treatment of the Salvationists in Bombay. Every seat was occupied two hours before the hour of meeting.

Addresses were delivered by the representatives of various religions and classes, and resolutions were adopted condemning the action of the authorities and sympathizing with those unjustly prosecuted.

A memorial to the Viceroy was adopted, asking for religious neutrality and equal protection to all. Great enthusiasm prevailed.

THE EDUCATION COMMISSION AT MADRAS.

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.)

MADRAS, OCT. 8.

The Education Commission commenced its visits to Madras schools and colleges on Friday. At the Pachappa's institution, founded from a Hindu charitable bequest of the last century, over one thousand students assembled with the trustees and other native gentlemen. Their memorial complained of the great reduction of their grant under the late Director of Public Instruction, from Rs. 12,000 in 1868 to Rs. 250 per month in 1879, notwithstanding an increase of work done. At the Christian College, with over thirteen hundred students, a similar curtailment was complained of ; but the wrong had been redressed, after a long struggle, by the present Director. The female normal school, the male normal school, and the Presidency College were also visited. The Presidency College justly claims to be the best equipped seat of higher instruction in Southern India. At each institution the Commission expressed itself much pleased, and the President, in reply to the memorials and addresses, delivered short speeches, which were loudly applauded.

On Saturday the witnesses occupied six hours ; and the Commission thereafter visited the Gymnasium and spent an hour with the Cosmopolitan Club for native and European gentlemen.

The evidence seems much directed to prove that the late Director deliberately revolutionised the standing Madras system of grants-in-aid. He reduced such grants all round and in some cases to one-fourth, and asserted the policy of direct Government schools, in contravention of the despatch of 1854, and of the orders of successive Secretaries of State. The savings from the aided schools had been more than spent on increased outlay on Government schools. The new Director had returned to the old system prescribed by the despatches ; but the witnesses declare the only permanent guarantee for the proper expenditure of educational grants to be an Education Act. They assert that those grants are quite inadequate to the demand in the Madras Presidency for private enterprise in education, especially for indigenous and female schools.

The chief witness for the Mahomedans declares the indigenous Mahomedan schools are willing to come under our system, and that they are the only means of reaching the Mahomedans.

Only half the ascertained number of schools in the presidency are recognised or aided by the Department.

The representative of female education, who has sixteen hundred girls in his schools, states that if funds were given he could multiply his operations five-fold, and still be below the increasing demand.

Saturday's meeting was largely attended, the Sheriff of Madras and many native gentlemen being present at the Senate House.

THE Right Rev. the Bishop of Bombay left Bombay for Aden yesterday by the Austrian Lloyd's steamer Vorwaerts.

THE English mails will be very late in arriving here this week, the s. s. Poona having only left Aden at 10 o'clock on Saturday morning.

WE regret to see that Mr. Elphinstone, Acting Revenue Commissioner, S.D., had his leg broken in a carriage accident at Poona, on Friday.

ACCORDING to the information received by a Poona paper, Dr. Beatty's leg—broken the other day by a fall while he was putting a horse into the train—will have to be amputated.

SERIOUS accidents have been frequent during the last few days at Poona. A local paper relates how "a gallant and popular young officer" narrowly escaped drowning in the Moota-Moolla, near the Poona Boat Club Station, the other day. He was rescued by the boatman Vishnu, who went out to his assistance in a boat.

H. H. THE THAKORE OF BHOWNUGGER paid a private visit to His Excellency the Governor at Parell on Saturday morning last.

ALLUDING to the preparations for the meeting in sympathy with the Salvationists at Calcutta, the correspondent of the Pioneer says that no general interest was taken in the proposed meeting, which was being organised by a few missionaries.

A MEETING was held at the Parel B. B. and C. I. Institute on Saturday afternoon to consider the erection of a church in that district. H. E. the Governor presided and spoke briefly in favour of the proposal before the meeting. The Bishop of Bombay spoke at some length ; and from his statements it appeared that Rs. 24,500 had been promised towards the work, H. E. the Governor contributing Rs. 2,000 of this sum, and the two railway companies Rs. 5,400 each. The cost of the church would, it was mentioned, be about Rs. 36,000. His Excellency the Governor said he wished to offer a special memorial to the church, and promised the gift of an organ on the completion of the building. A committee was appointed to raise further funds for the erection of the church.

THE suit brought by Mr. Turner, Official Assignee at Bombay, to recover twenty-seven lakhs of rupees from Kessowjee Naik was called on again before the Chief Justice at the High Court on Saturday last. His Lordship put to Dadameya Dost Mahomed, the defendant's mehta, some questions regarding an item of Rs. 2,92,000 relating to the Mazagon Building Company, which the defendant had claimed in his account. After hearing evidence based upon items in the defendant's books, his Lordship allowed the sum of Rs. 2,92,000 to the defendant. Two other items of Rs. 15,000 and Rs. 38,000 were also allowed him. As to the surplus proceeds of the sale of Mazagon and Frere shares, his Lordship ordered an account to be taken by the Commissioner, if necessary. Further directions and costs were reserved until the parties have made up a statement of accounts based upon his Lordship's judgment given on the 7th August last.

THE Bombay Guardian wishes its readers to understand that "the Salvationists are not lifting a finger to induce others to get up indignation meetings or engage in protests. They are all very happy and very thankful for the course that things have taken. They could not have anticipated anything better than the meetings which they are now holding on the edges of the native town. No one that sees them would dream that they had any grievance. They speak with great thankfulness of the kind attention shown by the police during their confinement. Only they would like the opportunity, not yet conceded them, of showing the police how perfectly safe it is for Christians to go through the streets of Bombay in procession, singing, and even with instrumental music."

WE (Bombay Guardian) have received several communications regarding the attitude of the authorities towards the Salvationist party, all up to concert pitch as regards indignation. One of these, from a clergyman in the north of India, will be found in our correspondence columns. Another correspondent is of opinion that the secret strings governing the movement have been pulled by the ecclesiastical establishment. We are persuaded that this is not the case. We are assured that the Bishop of Bombay does not approve of the harsh measures adopted towards the Salvationists.

THE special correspondent of the Pioneer at Cairo, telegraphing on the 5th October, states :—Arabi has been handed over to the charge of the Egyptians. A crisis is imminent in the Ministry.

UNDER the new award of prizes at the Simla Fine Arts Exhibition, it appears, Major Holdich still gets the Viceroy's prize, though for a different picture from that first selected. There need, therefore, be no change in the awards of the Commander-in-Chief's and Lieutenant-Governor's prizes. The Society's flower and fruit prize, however, now goes to Mr. A. Palmer, for an oil painting of Indian fruit, instead of to Mrs. Carr. The judges had in the first instance thought Mr. Palmer barred by having won the first prize for oil ; but this was a mistake, as there are two Mr. Palmers, and the first prize-winner is another man. It is proposed, the Pioneer's Simla correspondent states, to repair the mistake by instituting a special prize on this occasion which may go to Mrs. Carr.

THE Accounts of the Trade and Navigation of British India for the first five months of the current financial year, as compared with those of the corresponding period of last year, show that the value of merchandise imported, including Government stores to the value of Rs. 1,03,48,971, was Rs. 19,93,20,897 as against Government stores Rs. 1,09,23,726 and a total of Rs. 19,97,84,475 ; whilst the value of merchandise exported was Rs. 33,15,15,592 as against Rs. 30,74,54,077. The value of treasure imported was Rs. 7,67,79,598 as against Rs. 3,19,57,649, and that of treasure exported Rs. 38,48,017 as against Rs. 63,28,692. The gross amount of import duty collected was 87,88,396 as against Rs. 1,73,16,754, and of export duty collected Rs. 35,15,104 as against Rs. 30,37,558.

THE Mandalay correspondent of the Rangoon Gazette reports the arrival of the Burmese Embassy on the 28th September. After a private audience a grand public audience took place on the 30th. About two thousand soldiers, with elephants, guns, and other paraphernalia, went to the landing place and escorted the Embassy and the Viceregal gifts to the Palace with all honour and respect. Nothing has yet transpired regarding the Conference in the Palace.

THE traffic on the Indus Valley and Kandahar State Railway keeps pace with the times. According to returns for June, nine-and-a-half lakhs of merchandise passed over the line, yielding Rs. 4,59,876 of receipts ; as against three and a half lakhs in June, 1881, yielding Rs. 1,73,606. This increase was chiefly on wheat, the respective figures being 81,930 maunds, Rs. 6,228, receipts in June, 1881, and 384,799 maunds, Rs. 1,50,000, in June, 1882.

A RANGOON telegram says that the dacoities are reported to have been suppressed. At one time the band is reported to have been 800 strong. Four leaders have been killed and some sixty arrests made. The men have been sent to Mandalay to await the King's orders as to their fate. The Governors of Minhla and Toungdwin have been replaced by fresh men.

THE official summary of the North-West Provinces Crop and Weather Report for the week ended on the 4th inst., states that rain has fallen in the Benares and Allahabad divisions, and in part of Oudh. More is still wanted in Lucknow, Rae Bareli, Farukhabad, and Jhansi. Ploughings for the rabi crop are everywhere in progress. The kharif outturn is average. Prices are, on the whole, stationary. Slight cholera and fever still continue to be prevalent. Cattle disease continues in Kumaon, Fyzabad, and Partabgarh.

"X." WRITES to us :—"Please publish this in your famous Gazette, and do not send it to the waste-paper-basket. I deeply regret to bring to notice that this whole taluka of Yeola, zilla Nasik, has been greatly infested by the young breed of locusts, not yet fit to be on their wings. These insects have done so much injury to the young crops that they have left only the slender stems, with long ears overtopping them. The ears have changed to black, as if mourning the condition of the poor farmers for these four or five years. The Collector had wisely instructed the Mamletdar here to contribute some money to the destroyers of these insects, but this order was discontinued after four or five days, as the money spent on the work exceeded the sum of Rs. 4,000, and as the Government was unwilling to carry out these methods of destruction. So I request you will kindly bring this matter to Government's notice, and try to remit the land rent for this year, as the second crops are likely to be damaged ; and moreover to assist all the cultivators with requisite aid."

Apropos of the Hon. W. W. Hunter's system of spelling Indian names, the following story reaches the Madras Mail from Ooty. At a dinner at Government House the hon. gentleman found himself seated alongside a charming lady who resides at Coonoor, who, after much brilliant conversation on his part, naively asked—"And are you the Dr. Hunter who wants to spell 'Coonoor with K-u-n-u-r ?"

THE Indian Forester, published at Dehra Doon, is to be converted from a quarterly to a monthly publication. Mr. W. R. Fisher, of the Dehra Doon Forest School, is the editor.

AN up-country paper hears that the new Census calculations will show that, within the limits of the Indian Empire, no fewer than 132 separate and distinct languages are spoken.

THE Allahabad paper's special correspondent in Egypt gives some particulars of the services of the Indian troops. On the day of the Tel-el-Kebir fight Sir Herbert Macpherson, with the 72nd Mountain Battery, 2nd Beloochies, 7th and 20th N. I., succeeded in intercepting large bodies of the enemy fleeing towards Zagazig. He captured 15 Krupp guns and large quantities of ammunition and rifles, &c. The same day, 13th, Sir Herbert Macpherson pushed on his infantry division to Zagagig, which he occupied, and the 6th Bengal Cavalry succeeded in capturing four trains at this station.

WRITING on September 15, the Pioneer's London Political Correspondent remarked on the subject of the possible complications arising out of the Egyptian question :—

It is too early yet to discuss the numerous proposals (more or less undefined) for the settlement of Egypt. It may, however, be pointed out that a strong feeling prevails here that the advantages secured by the sword must not be thrown away by diplomacy. On this matter the Government will be strongly pressed. It may be that a protectorate such as was advocated by the Times, is impossible ; but short of that it is held that English influence ought to be as powerful in Egypt as it can be made. The conduct of the Government when they appear with their scheme of re-construction before the European Conference will be watched with the closest attention, and any undue concession on their part is sure to be warmly resented. Russia is already preparing to play against us the part which Lord Beaconsfield played against her at Berlin. It is said that she will demand a settlement of the Suez Canal question in the sense of placing it permanently under an International Commission, and that she is prepared, in case of necessity, to push the matter to the verge of war. How far all this may be true we have no means of judging, but it is certain that she is making hasty preparations for some eventuality in Armenia. Present appearances are certainly in our favour in all other quarters. The splendid victory of Wednesday has carried confusion to all our detractors abroad, and has fallen as a thunderbolt upon the splenetic critics of Italy and France. These persons never represented the minds of their own Governments. The French Prime Minister has promptly telegraphed his congratulations, and though the Italian Government is forced to maintain its attitude of reserve, there are not wanting indications, that the other Powers are satisfied with the events of the week. But our real difficulties are only just commencing. It is in the conference of Europe that there is danger to this country, Happily we have hitherto done well, and the triumph of the Gladstone Government will be complete if it comes safely off from the conference.

MILITARY NEWS.

THE order for the 16th N. I. and 9-1 Cinque Ports Division, Royal Artillery (Mountain Battery), to hold themselves in readiness for foreign service, has been countermanded, their services not now being required.

MAJOR N. C. DUGDALE, of the Rifle Brigade, who has been officiating as Commandant of the Deolali Depôt since the departure of Colonel Twentyman, will now be appointed permanently to the post.

IN a private letter, dated Ismailia, Sept. 15th., which has been communicated to the Lahore paper, it is stated that on the arrival of the 6th Bengal Cavalry in Egypt, the horses were found to be suffering from glanders. Five of them had to be shot, and others removed.

THE Civil and Military Gazette says the echo of grumbling amongst officers of the Indian Contingent has reached India. Spretæ injuria formæ ; it was undoubtedly hard to find that, under Sir Garnet Wolseley's manipulation, the Indian Contingent was reduced to the dimensions of a brigade. Of course it was especially hard on General Sir Herbert Macpherson and his Staff, and on Brigadier-General Tanner, also a Brigadier without a brigade.

THE Secretary of State, it is understood, intends to confer a number of commissions on deserving non-commissioned officers at the end of the complications in Egypt. It is believed that the number will be one per regiment, as Mr. Childers is of opinion that this would be the best means of showing his appreciation of the services rendered during the campaign by non-commissioned officers generally attached to the expedition.

IT has been rumoured that a Camp-of-Exercise will be held this year at Meerut ; but the Allahabad paper is given to understand that no such camp will be formed.

THE following appointments have been made :—Colonel Watson, late 17th Bengal Cavalry, to be Commandant of the 9th Bengal Cavalry vice Dayrell, retired ; Colonel Worsley, late 36th Native Infantry, to be Commandant, 13th Native Infantry, vice Watson retired ; Colonel Pasley, late 34th Native Infantry, to be Commandant, 17th Native Infantry, vice Walker, retired ; Lieutenant-Colonel Little, A. Q. M. G., to be 2nd-in-Command of the 42nd Native Infantry, vice Tulloch, retired ; and Lieutenant-Colonel Birch, late 35th Native Infantry, to be 2nd-in-Command, 2nd Goorkhas, vice Nash, retired.

COLONEL C. ECCLES will complete his five years' command of the 1st Battalion King's Own Royal Lancaster (late 4th) Regt. on the 29th October, and so have to retire to half-pay. The command of this battalion will be given to Lieut.-Colonel Twentyman, Commandant of the Deolali Depôt, but at present at home on leave, so that he will be at hand to take up the command immediately on its falling vacant. As Colonel Twentyman is seconded no further promotion will take place, so that the senior Major will have to wait till [illegible] 1885, should no Lieutenant-Colonel leave the regiment before then. If Colonel Twentyman's service has been in his present regiment, which he joined in December, 1855. Next April he will be 47 years of age. He served in the Abyssinian expedition and obtained his brevet Lieutenant-Colonelcy for the Zulu campaign, when he was mentioned in despatches.

THE Mobilisation Scheme, with its fixed Army Corps, Commanders and Staff Officers, the Englishman remarks, has apparently altogether collapsed. The staff sent to Egypt certainly have not been taken therefrom, nor have the regiments at the front been brigaded or the brigades been formed into divisions in accordance therewith, besides which the organisation of the several Army Corps has entirely disappeared from the Army List.

THE time within which officers of the Native Army could avail themselves of the special retirements under the reduction scheme expired on the 30th September. Altogether five Commanding Officers and two 2nd-in-Command of Bengal regiments have accepted the terms offered by Government. As there were only nine Bengal regiments reduced, the Pioneer remarks it cannot really be considered, in spite of a good deal of vague talk about the hardship of reductions, that the Government offer has proved unattractive. Only one of the retiring officers (Colonel Godby, of the 4th Punjab Cavalry) belongs to a disbanded regiment. Colonel C. J. Godby entered the army in 1845, and was consequently not far off from the prospect of a Colonel's allowance ; but as he had held command of his regiment since April, 1859, he was hardly likely to have obtained further employment. Colonel Godby served through the Sutlej campaign of 1848-49, and is recorded as having been dangerously wounded in a hand-to-hand fight in defence of the regimental colours at Chillianwallah. His services as a Brigadier with Sir Donald Stewart's force in the Afghan War are too recent to require recalling. Major T. Dayrell, of the 9th B. C., the other cavalry officer retiring, only obtained the command of his regiment a year ago, and would have been able to hold it for the full seven years, till August, 1888. The 2nd-in-Command is Lieutenant-Colonel Palmer, Major Dayrell's senior by brevet rank, and only a few days his junior in the army. The retirements of Colonels Watson and Walker, of the 13th and 17th N. I., respectively, were announced only recently. Under the seven years' rule the former would have been obliged to surrender his command at the end of next year ; the latter not until 1886. Colonel G. N. Money, the Commandant of the 3rd Sikhs, is another officer whose doings in Afghanistan have been frequently mentioned in despatches and out of them, and in earlier times he was present at the siege of Delhi, and at the siege and capture of Lucknow, as well as the Umbeyla Campaign. Colonel Money obtained command of his regiment in the course of the late war. Major Nash, the 2nd-in-Command of the 2nd Goorkhas, entered the Army in 1857, and has held his present appointment since 1876. He had no prospect of succeeding to the Command in his own regiment till 1877. Major Tulloch, 2nd-in-Command of the 42nd Assam Light Infantry, has of late held the appointment of Command of the Naga Transport Corps. He entered the Army in 1848, and has been eight years in his present regimental position.

AFGHAN WAR SERVICES.—The Government of India having decided to give liberal grants of land to certain Native Commissioned Officers who rendered good service during the recent Afghan Campaign, the claims of Subadar Moonisawmy of the First Madras Infantry are now being pressed before the Local Government, and it has been decided, as no Government waste land or cultivated land is available in the village chosen by him in the Vellore Taluk, to purchase land that will yield him a revenue annually of Rs. 500, and to hand the same over to him as a gift or Inam at a reduced rate of assessment for such a number of years as he may be thought entitled to for the particular services which the Military Department consider he rendered in the recent Afghan Campaign requiring recognition.—Madras Times.

COURTS-MARTIAL.

AT a European District Court Martial held at Ahmednagar on 18th September, Private John Liddle, 1st Battalion Rifle Brigade, was charged with (1st), Using insubordinate language in that, at Ahmednagar on 10th September last, he, during on parade the promulgation of a District Court Martial, used the following insubordinate language "ask my * * * what you have given me, I can do on my * * * you * * * I will not do a day for you in prison," or words to that effect ; (2nd) Using threatening language to his superior officer, in that he said to Sergeant John Cooksley, 1st Battalion Rifle Brigade. "If I had only the chance I would do for you" or words to that effect. The Court found the prisoner guilty of all the charges, and sentenced him to be imprisoned with hard labour for one year nine months and six days, and to be discharged with ignominy from Her Majesty's service. General Ross, President, remitted the discharge with ignominy.

AT a General Court Martial assembled at Fort St. George, Madras, on 23rd September Private John Clifford, 2nd Battalion Hampshire Regiment, was charged with being guilty of contempt of a Court Martial by using insulting language, on the 5th of August in having, when asked by the President of the said Court Martial :—"Do you object to be tried by me as the President or by any of the officers whose names you have heard read over?" used insulting language as follows :—"Yes ; you are a lot of . . . and there is not a gentleman amongst you," and again when the oath was being administered to the members "What the . . . the use of that ; its all . . . nonsense. I know what I shall get—730 days." He was charged also with disobeying in such a manner as to show a wilful defiance of authority, a lawful command given personally by his superior officer, in the execution of his office. On the 7th August when ordered by Sergeant H. Larget, his superior officer, in the execution of his office, to stand to attention when visited by the Orderly Officer, he did not do so, but remained lying on his cot, saying : "I am not going to stand to attention for any one," or words to that effect. The Court found the prisoner guilty of all the charges, and sentenced him to suffer penal servitude for the term of seven years, and to be discharged with ignominy from Her Majesty's service. The sentence has been confirmed by the Comander-in-Chief.

Macdowall. The discussions on both these papers occupied so much time that the consideration of papers by Drs. Carter and Cody, of which notice had been given, was postponed to the next meeting.

ALEXANDRA HOTEL AND PINTO'S HOTEL MATHERAN.

MR. J. X. PINTO, son and successor of the late J. C. PINTO, the Proprietor of the both well-known Hotels, respectfully begs to inform the public that the above Hotels are now OPENED to VISITORS. There are seven separate Bungalows attached to the Hotels, well adapted for families, for whose comforts every care is taken. The Hotels are well situated, occupy a central position, and are therefore very conveniently placed within the reach of several POINTS and Gymkhana, midway between the churches and the Government Offices, Library, &c., and in a breezy locality under the shed of large trees, which diminish the glare and keep the extensive compound always fresh and cool.

Trusting in the experience of more than a dozen years in the management of the Hotels under his late father, he solicits that he will receive the same patronage which the public have hitherto generously shown to his late father.
